Beware ye of the Order, for evil things shall play upon the land in Great Number,
and they shall assail
the Strongholds of the Virtuous. And those strongholds shall become few in number, for Evil is known to wear a face of great Beauty and Power, and many shall fall to it's Bewitching Might.

But when the sky does appear at it's most dark, look ye of the Faithful to the Shard of Light, for it shall provide ye with what ye need to stand fast.
When the Shadows
seem at their longest
and most powerful,
and ye are beset by
enemies on all sides, then the Shard of Light shall provide the Order with Guardians to protect ye. They shall be created out of the Light that does fill the Shard, and they shall stand as a beacon of Hope to the Forces of Virtues.

These Guardians shall give completely of themselves to shield ye of the Faithful
and to defend the Order, and they shall feel death many times, yet they shall not expire in truth,

for they are one with the Light. To some,
they shall be reviled
as Murderers, and then they shall be hunted by even the soldiers of the King himself, for they shall know not whence the Guardians have come nor do they know their purpose.
But the Guardians
shall forever
faithfully serve ye of the Order, and they shall never falter.
Cherish these Guardians in your Hearts, for they are gifts to you from the Shard of Light.
